

Aboriginal Youth Suicide Prevention Strategy

Let us honour and preserve the unique gifts that the Creator has given to each of us, life is precious and it's our collective responsibility to protect it...

If we have the courage to stand up for ourselves, we have the courage to talk openly with one another about having thoughts of suicide.

Let all of us take responsibility to listen!

“Every life is precious and has a purpose in our society”

A message brought to you by KSCS and Health Canada